

2-02F800

MR. QUO TAI-CHI SAYS GOODBYE.

A number of distinguished guests assemble to bid farewell to the Chinese Ambassador. His Excellency gives a reception at the Embassy on the eve of his departure to China, to take up his new appointment as Foreign Secretary. Many notable figures in diplomatic and other worlds are present.

In a farewell message Mr. Quo Tai-Chi expresses his Country's close and friendly relationship with Britain.