BOSCHE BUSTER

Under that tarpaulin is one of the world's largest guns. His Majesty's gun "Bosche-Buster" begins to disgorge its crew from under its night-shirt. Now boys, let's have that cover off. That's better!

Now we can really have a look! They tell me that they crossed a field howitzer with an eighteen pounder to produce this monster offspring.

As you can see, she's mounted on rails and is the last word in offensive weapons - in fact, she can be most offensive.

Well Bosche-Buster wasn't built to lie around and decorate the country. Let her get just one little whiff of a Nazi, and she'll start throwing some heavy stuff off her chest.
