

PATHE GAZETTE: 41/43. (DUBLIN)

BOWS AND ARROWS

One of the world's most ancient arts comes into its own again on the opening of the archery season at Bear Mountain, New York. They shot an arrow into the air, right at the bear. Today believe us, there is some exceptional shooting, men and women, young and old, all fall victim to the spell of the bow. Each archer has his own target, some bank on a pretty girl and some think the eyes have it.