

BELLE OF THE REGIMENT.

Something of the romantic atmosphere of the early history of the South American States is captured, when Fay Albrecht of Wisconsin, the Belle of the Regiment presents the Colours to the year's leading company of Cadets at Annapolis Military College.

June week at the Academy is a momentous occasions, presenting a charming and colourful scene.

Not exactly opportune for us to try it out, but we might start by adopting Mae West as Colour Girl for the Balloon Barrage.
