

5-075800

KING WITH THE CANADIANS.

The Royal Salute at a depot of two famous Canadian Regiments as, during the celebration of Canada's seventy-fourth birthday, His Majesty presents Colours to Regiments from Alberta and New Brunswick.

Dominion Day in Britain is further historically notable by the fact that it is the first time that a British Sovereign has presented colours to Canadian Regiments in this country.