

KILTED A.T.S.

Some of the Auxiliary Territorial Service (A.T.S. to you) have gone all skittish Scottish. They are wearing the kilt! Here the garments are being made, of Sutherland Tartan, and I'm sure you will agree that they are very attractive indeed!

The A.T.S. girls are proud of their distinctive dress, but don't get me wrong, A.T.S. doesn't stand for After The Scots - - or does it? The kilt is not part of the general clothing issue, but we wouldn't worry about that. Actually the garments are paid for out of Concert and Dance funds.

In their rest time the girls wear - - very little, but you must admit that the girl at the back looks extremely well in the kilt.
