DIVING STARS AT BEVERLEY HILLS

A new and very luxurious swimming pool opens at Beverley Hills with a display of high diving by three stars of the springboard. They're Harry Perry, Al Patnick and Earl Clark, and we'll slow up their dives so you can study their perfect styles. The three lads are as graceful as gazelles and even in contrasting somersaults they seem to be doing it by numbers. Surprising what you can do after a little practise. If you want the best somersaults, they've got them. A team packed with dive and another perfect example of poise and timing. Well, the opening season looks like being a big success.
