

PATHE GAZETTE: 41/55. (DUBLIN)

BUDGE V. PERRY - TENNIS

Tennis stars Donald Budge and Fred Perry meet as professionals at Forest Hills, where they previously fought as amateurs. Budge is serving and the former Davis Cup champ meets the challenge with some pretty footwork on the far side of the net. The big moment finds Perry violently attacking from the far-court. His service is smashing and he follows up every advantage. Budge puts up a great show but Perry romps home in three straight sets. Now a glimpse of the doubles. Budge and Perry against Stefan and Gledhill. Against Stefan's service the Budge-Perry combine is well and truly tested, but it triumphs again in championship style.