

SOVIET MISSION IN LONDON

.....

The arrival in Britain of a Russian Services Mission headed by the Deputy Chief of the Soviet General Staff, comes at a time when the stubborn Russian resistance to the Germans is being recognised in all parts of the world.

Met by M. Maisky and Chiefs of our Navy, Army and Air Force, the representatives bring information on new methods of warfare with which the Red Army has experimented.