NATIONAL ATHLETIC CHAMPIONSHIPS

There's a big crowd at Franklin Field, Philadelphia, for the 53rd National A.A. Championships. This is the final of the 100 metre dash. It is won by Barney Yule of Penn. in ten and three tenths seconds, just equalling the record. We'll show up the 3,000 metre water jump to show that it can be as graceful as damp. Leading the way is E. Ford of Oklahoma. He always did take plenty of water with it. A slow motion study in the art of pole jumping. Coming our way is Corny Wamerden. Now the 110 metre hurdles. In the second lane from the left is Fred Walter, famous Rice graduate and he goes the trip in thirteen and seven tenth seconds. That equals the world record.
