

AMERICANS WITH THE R.C.A.F.

American Eagles with the Royal Canadian Air Force on pay parade at a Camp in Ontario. Visiting U.S.A. Army Officials inspect some hundreds of men who proudly wear the wings of the R.A.F.

From R.C.A.F. men who have been inaction, they get sound advice, One of the most eager listeners is White Dahl, (the chap with glasses) an American Soldier of Fortune who fought in Spain and ended up in a Franco Jail.

Advanced Students are now in course of learning combat flying....

American built planes manned by American Pilots, in Canada....

Its a cause they believe in, so they are more than welcome in the ranks of the R.A.F.

Before long these Americans will be doing their bit towards clearing up the mess that is Europe.
