A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

The American stock-car Derby gives the crowd more than their money's worth. There's a thrill every second to keep them on their toes with excitement. A score of dare-devils, each out to prove he's better than the others. Its a tyre-less grind for some!

My hat, look at this! A real 'purler'... that petrol tanks likely to blow up any moment. And there it is. Only a miracle can save the driver! Its too hot for the onlookers to help, but no, there's signs of life. It is... he's alive. He's out of that inferno. Now who says that miracles can't happen?
