

SOUTH AFRICA'S AIR COMMANDO.

Through the streets of Johannesburg swing men of the South African Air Force on a comprehensive tour of the country. These impressive commandos, as they're called, are quite a feature of the Union. A woman's auxiliary unit, also marches in the Parade. At Germiston, Field Marshal Smuts adds further stimulant to the recruiting drive with words of praise and encouragement.

A military parade through the streets, even in this mater of fact age, is still a stirring sight. We might well have more of it over here. Here's wishing the Commando every success.
