

PATHE GAZETTE: 41/76. (DUBLIN)

MISS AMERICA PAGEANT

It's the Miss America pageant at Atlantic City. The big day for the peaches of the 1941 crop of beauty from Coney to Catalina. This year's procession is more ambitious than ever and the decorated cars show that the boy friends have certainly been working overtime. Glamorous beasts of the jungle come to frolic with the beautiful belles of the seaboard. My, here's a fine look out, a perfect lark in the crow's nest. There it is then, beauty on parade and a welcome relief from the troubles of a jaded old world.