

5-820000
PATHE GAZETTE: 41/82. (DUBLIN)

SHEEP DOG TRIALS

The famous Northumberland Sheep Dog Trials are on again near Rothbury and some of the experts display their doggy intelligence. Farmers from miles around watch the crafty tactics of the dogs as he ushers the sheep to the first pens, as they are called. Rover knows all his master's orders backwards and he obeys them even more quickly than a wife does her husband's. Where do we go from here? Well, the shepherd and his dog will soon show them. That's where, little woollies. The shepherd signals the next flap and off they go again. Down Rover, good dog. Now for the last pen, they are nearly home old man, so go steady. Grand and now we've got to see a dog about a bone.