

41/85-060000

RAIWAYION ARMY BAND'S JUBILEE

The International Staff Band of the Salvation Army celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of its foundation by playing a programme of music in the forecourt of Buckingham Palace.

The March "UNDER TWO FLAGS" being played was written by in honour of the thousands of members of the Salvation Army serving in His Majesty's Forces.

One Juvenile jitterbug wants 'em to swing it.

The King comes to express his enjoyment of the band's performance. Colonel Fuller it's Conductor has been with the band for 44 years - another anniversary to be proud of.