GENERAL DE GAULLE HONOURS P.P. NAVY.

The tramp of marching feet echoes in the busy yards of a Naval Establishment, as Free French sailors parade for the arrival of General de Gaulle. He has come to present the "Croix Liberation" and other decorations to members of the crews of the Submarines HUBIS and MINERVA.

The Chief of the Free French Navy, and Air Force Admiral Maselier, also receives the new decoration.

The submarines HUBIS and MINERVA have worthily upheld the spirit of Free France and are visited by General de Gaulle.

The gallantry of the crews has won honours for the Free French Flag. Splendid achievements which will one day be spoken of with pride in a liberated France.
