MEXICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY

Mexico celebrates a 131 years of independence with a grand parade of her armed forces and Rumania's ex-King Carol is there with the President to watch it. Every branch of the Forces is represented in the moving procession. 20,000 men salute their President Cardenas (?) on this anniversary of their country's deliverance from Spain. Mexico is not behind her neighbours in mechanised strength. It's the outcome of their policy on defence and not defiance.
