CANADIANS ( NEW COLOURS.

Her Majesty the Queen presents New Colours to the Saskatoon Light Infantry at present in this country....

The colours are a gift from the Canadian City from which the regiment gets its name. After the presentation the Queen says that she knows that the Saskatoon Light Infantry will be true to the traditions of the regiment, and adds ....

(Queen's Speech)

As the regiment marches away with the new Colours carried proudly at its head, we know that the Saskatoon Light Infantry will give as good an account of themselves as they did in the last war.
