HEROES OF WALES - SPECIAL

At a recent investiture at Buckingham Palace, His Majesty the King decorated a number of people who have performed deeds of valour in our war against the Hun. Amongst those to be honoured are two men of Swansea, first we present Mr. Wilfred Francis of the British Legion and now Mr. Thomas Crocker of the Swansea Corporation. These two men receive the British Empire Medal for their grand efforts in their connection with rescue party work in Swansea. We say thank you gentlemen.
