

5-411000

4/1/89

MARTYRS OF FRANCE.

Free French men and women attend a London Church to hear a Requiem sung for the victims of Nazi frightfulness in Nantes, and other Martyrs of France. General de Gaulle and Mr. Eden are present. Over a hundred hostages, whose only crime was love of their country, were executed as reprisal for the death of two Germans.... FRANCE WILL NOT FORGET.

France remembers also as General de Gaulle and the newly formed Free French National Committee meets for the first time. They observe "five minutes silence" in honour of the dead. FRANCE WILL NOT FORGET.