

000123--

PATHE GAZETTE: 41/94. (DUBLIN)

NEW BISHOP ENTHRONED

At. St. Nicholas Cathedral, the Reverend Noel Baring-Hudson returns to Newcastle on Tyne to be enthroned as the new Bishop. Ten years ago he was vicar for five years in that city at St. John's, and judging by the reception accorded him he is well remembered. Many people assemble at the cathedral to see the procession with all its traditional ecclesiastical and civil pomp weave its way majestically to the West Door of the Cathedral. Clergy and layity are present from all parts of the North East in this colourful scene at the old Cathedral. Incidentally, the new Bishop of Newcastle is a keen sportsman, he captained the Harlequins at rugby and while a priest in Leeds played for Headingley and Yorkshire. As the procession reaches the West Door the Bishop knocks with his pastoral staff and on entering makes his way towards the Council to crave enthronement.