

5-8-55000
PATHE GAZETTE: 42/2. (DUBLIN)

MOUNTAIN MANOEUVRES

Alpine troops are finding their snow legs on Mount Ranier, near Washington. The official name of the regiment is 1st Battalion of the 87th Infantry and their training is full of ups and downs. A vital thing is to know the ropes and there's a special technique about mountain manoeuvres that belongs to no other. The men are what they call "tough babies" and each one is trained to be a marksman.