BRITISH PARATROOPS RAID FRANCE

- 1, V.S. Commandos on board ship prepare for the attack on the radiolocation post at Le Havre. They climb into landing craft which are lowered over the side of the ship and off they go for the raid. (No shots of raid). 68
- 2, V.S. Landing craft with Scottish troops ~~and~~ come into beach and the front flaps down then they run onto sand, ~~as if~~ for an invasion. 27
- 3, V.S. Shots showing the same type of paratroops that helped in the ~~attack~~ on Le Havre. These shots are ~~th~~ of paratroops climbing into planes, getting airborne and jumping. They land and make off ~~as if~~ they are attacking the enemy. (Shots from Gazette 41-38) 90
- 4, V.S. Actual photos of the Le Havre raiders returning back to the ships. They look tired and some are wounded. They bring a few Nazi prisoners also. 110
- 5, M.S. Wing Commander Pickard who led the planes that dropped the paratroops talks with some of his men. 13
