SPEEDBOAT THRILL

The water babies of Miami have gone haywire. It's one of Florida's water carnivals. Expert skiers and aquaplaners come from all parts of the coast to hitch their wagons to a speedboat and whizz round the seaboard. The most expert of them are girls. Down the royal runway streak the speed kings. The thrill of movement and the tang of the spray makes them feel like giants in a world of pygmies. Gosh, that made her jump. Here's Jack Jax and Jack Jax Junior, what a pop, what a game, what a life.
