BIRTHDAY FOR THE PRESIDENT

President Roosevelt's birthday guest of honour is four year old Terry King, victim of infantile paralysis, who is welcomed by Mrs. Roosevelt at the White House. ^{To} Thousands like young Terry, afflicted but smiling bravely, America has dedicated this day. Hollywood goes to Washington too and watching the First Lady cut the cake is Mickey Rooney. Newly-wed Mickey hands a piece of cake to his newly wed bride. In the evening, gala balls are held everywhere. America dances so that those who can't dance may one day be able to walk. To wind up a busy day, the country listens to a message from the White House. The afflicted have not been forgotten.
