

PATHE GAZETTE: 42/29. (DUBLIN)

PALM SUNDAY PROCESSION

The solemn procession of Blessing the Palms takes place at Westminster Cathedral in the presence of a large body of clergy. The traditional ceremony attended by the Bishop of Lancy. Men and boys of the choir line the steps as the Bishop leaves the church. The second half of the ancient ceremony begins with the knocking on the door. The priests then enter followed by the congregation. Westminster on Palm Sunday is always a memorable day to the Catholics of London.