INDOOR GAMES.

15 feet and  $\frac{1}{2}$  of an inch, higher than anyone has ever vaulted before indoors, that's the record set up by Cornelius Walmerdam in the Milrose Games in New York's Madison Square Gardens. The start of the 1,000 yard flat. Gene Wensky is leading with Earl Mitchel right on his heels, it looks like Mitchel's race but in the straight he comes a cropper and the winner is Lew Colade.
