BASKETBALL.

If you like your basketball fast and furious this is just what the doctor ordered. The Hosquash All Stars and the Detroit Eagles are fighting it out for the National Title, the fans get a real thrill. It's a rip roaring neck and neck affair with both sides squaring things up to equal the score at the interval. Last year the Eagles beat the Hosquash boys by one point, so tonight's clash is more than usually exciting, especially as all players are right on top of their form. This time the game goes to Hosquash who win 43-41.
