

5-F8E000

PATHE GAZETTE: 42/32. (DUBLIN)

SPRINGTIME AT THE ZOO

When spring comes to the Dublin Zoo the animals come out to play. The children have been waiting a long time to welcome the elephant, and who said it was dangerous to be taken for a ride. Pick 'em up there Jumbo. In his deep pit the brown bear is always begging, the beggar. The baby goats still on the bottle but the black bear's on the scrounge. Yes, spring appetites have returned.