BABY BOXERS

Things are warming up for the baby boxing championships at Annapolis and there's nothing like a little hero worship before going in to do or cry - die. Basher Bill on the left, Tornado Tim a 3 year old and scales 40 pounds. So what, so take that Mac. The Basher's down but he hadn't to fall far anyway. Come on son, give 'im a fourpenny one. Ah, well, a boxer's life ain't all beer and skittles. A feller can rub his eyes if he likes. It's all very well for you suckers, seconds out. Looks as if the midget's out too. Go on, laugh. Ladies and gents, the last round at last. My, a quitter eh? My, My.
