

PATHE GAZETTE: 42/44. (DUBLIN)

NEW RECRUITS MARCH PAST

At Havana, Cuba, new recruits for the army tell what they are made of in a grand march past. America's good neighbour in the Caribbean is responding magnificently to another call-up. The Navy too presents its newcomers. The island of Cuba has a wide spread coastline. There's a new spirit abroad in the West Indies that keeps pace with the march of events.