

KNOCKING 'EM DOWN.

Women of Milwaukee, U.S.A. take our minds off the war for a bit. Its the Internation Bowling Congress, where the ladies show how straight they could throw something "at the old man" if he came home late.

All down every time - - nearly!

Papa has his hands full - and so has Momma's 'ickle pet!

The ladies are serious about it all. A successful throw means almost as much to them as a new fur coat - almost! The views of some of the contestants add a lot of wight to the proceedings. For the winner, there is of course, a very substantial prize. No! not you Momma, Sit down!
