CANADA'S LARGEST FAMILY

Home from home for twenty two members of one family or two football teams, is this little farm in Quebec. The men do the shearing while the women do the weaving. Yes, they make all their own clothes and when it comes to dairy produce why there's no better butter in all Quebec.

Boots for the Army, no, just for the family. Loaves six and a half feet long are baked every evening. Is that family well bread (bred)! Today some of the lads and lasses come home to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. Marquis's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The festive board when the family is in full session is like a mayorial banquet, but the only thing they don't produce is sugar, so Ma Marquis rations it carefully. Their names being Marquis they feed like Lords. Here's Ma and Pa, they are just swell.
