

5-11-50

RIVALS JOIN DE GAULLE.

Two well-known Frenchmen of diametrically opposed political views have escaped from France and placed themselves at the disposal of General de Gaulle - M. Pierre Brossolette and M. Charles Vallin.

Pétain's loss is certainly De Gaulle's gain.