SALE OF ANGUS HERD

At Newtown St. Boswell the whole of the famous Aberdeen Angus Herd from Sandy Knoe is put up for sale. Before the start of the proceedings there is the disinfectant spray and some grooming. You can't be too careful with the prices of Sandy Knoe. The herd was founded in 1929 and in a comparatively short time became outstanding in most of Scotland's front rank shows. In the sale ring some of the cows fetch 100 gns. and calves 50 gns. From this same herd came Princess Maria of Sandy Knoe, first prize winner as a yearling at her first show. Bidding is brisk for bulls too, last year's top price ran to £530. and earlier sales added as much as £900. Today's champion fetches 400 guineas, he's certainly a gentleman of spirit.
