DIEPPE HEROES IN CANADA.

Home again are these Canadian heroes of the Dieppe raid. The greatest moment in a soldier's life is that exquisite excitement of re-union with his loved ones. To set feet once more on their native soil is perhaps the most coveted reward these fine lads could wish for. What a wonderful welcome awaits them. Sweethearts, mothers, wives and kiddies fairly ganging up for the first embrace. Right now the world stops still on a railway station.

Lieutenant Councell is still a stretcher case, but there's nothing wrong about his winning smile. Tucked under his blankets is a Military Medal, a decoration he won in that splendid attack which earned for the Canadians a glorious page in military history.

The Canadian Associate Minister of National Defence, Mr. Power, extends the nation's welcome to the heroes of Dieppe back in their beloved land of the Maple Leaf.
