

5-24-1900

FIVE OF A KIND.

Five lovely girls looking for something to launch. And five new ships - just enough to go round. Away they go. Well, three of them go! The others don't want to leave these gorgeous American girls. Do you blame them? Rugged Alaskan type Army boats like being smashed on the nose by a bottle wielded by a pretty girl.

Number four has dragged itself away at last. Perhaps somebody pushed it.

"Five of a Kind" means a "Full House" for this American Shipyard.