

000525-c

PATHE GAZETTE: 42/98. (DUBLIN)

ENTERTAINMENT WORKERS ENTERTAINED

The Cinema and Theatres Branch of the Irish Transport and General Workers Union celebrates its Silver Jubilee with a supper and dance at Merran's Hotel, Dublin. Among the guests are the secretaries of the branches in the Dublin area who look after the interests of twenty thousand workers and the Union's Vice President William McNullin. Senator Thomas Forran presents certificates to successful trainees. In conjunction with the Cinema Owners Association the branch arranges for the training of young people as cinema operators and technicians. Students are awarded certificates on the passing of their Third Year examinations. The winning students with their Scrolls of Honour. Senator Forran presents a medal to Mr. Robert Tate, President of the Branch and Chief Operator at the Savoy Cinema, Dublin. In other words a good time is had by all.