PAGEANT OF THE ALLIES.

The amphitheatre of London's Albert Hall is the scene of a great New Year Festival.

A grand pageant of the Empire and her Allies. A long slow tide of colour flows towards the stage. Here come the British Legion colour bearers. An immensely inspiring scene which reaches its peak as the flags of the United Nations follow in procession headed by China.

The Tricolour of Fighting France.

The blood red flag of the Soviet Union.

"Old Glory" - the Stars and Stripes of the United States of America.

An unforgettable moment as the red and white banner of Malta takes its place on the filling stage. Six thousand people give a great ovation as the Island's flag is followed onto the stage by the Island's former Governor - General Sir William Dobbie. Leaving his box in the auditorium, Sir William is received with a fresh outburst of applause.

The closing scenes are the most impressive of all. The commendation of our cause to God that his people may achieve victory through faith, and power given into their hands for the triumph of Good over Evil.
