

3-488880

FRENCH BATTLESHIP RICHELIEU.

Recently the news was made public that the 35,000 ton French battleship RICHELIEU, one of the world's most powerful warships had arrived in New York, after a secret and stormy 13 day crossing from Dakar. Other units of the French Navy accompanied her across the Atlantic.

Vice-Admiral FENARD speaks for the men of his Command during a short interview with this newscast.

Past the towering sky-line of New York RICHELIEU heads towards her berth in the Brooklyn Navy Yard where she will undergo repair and outfitting. A formidable ally has been added to the United Nation's forces.