

MR. EDEN TELLS AMERICA.

With Lord Halifax, the British Foreign Minister calls on Secretary of State Cordell Hull. Mr. Edens words have produced an excellent impression in the United States.

"There are tough times ahead. There are bound to be setbacks and disappointments before the final victory is won in the West and in the East".

In the State Capitol Building, Annapolis, Mr. Eden throws a verbal shaft at Japan.

"We, ~~know~~^{do} less than you, and our partner China, have a score to settle with the Japanese, nor shall we cease fighting until that evil growth in the Pacific has been cut back. We shall be with you in this to the end".
