TITLE. :TWIN GIRLS TRAIN.

Picture.:- Mrs Zitenfeld assumes the role of trainer to her two daughters who are still in their teens !

These lit-or- I nearly said little ladies! - these young ladies are determined to win the Dover Town Gold Cup this year by swimming from Dover to France.

If buoyancy means anything - they should most certainly achieve their object, particularly as they are both such powerful swimmers. Their style is good - isn't it ?

Truly feminine, Mother in the boat rewards her daughters for their efforts with chocolates ! Incidentally these help to keep them warm whilst in the water.

Off they go again in grand style only giving up when Mother says "Enough".

By the way, Bernice is on the left and Phyllis on the right of this "shot".

Good luck girls !

TITLE.:- HOT DIVING

Picture.:- The dive in itself is quite an achievement - from a height of one hundred and ten feet !

- But when friends below set fire to petrol for him to dive into - well, he simply turns his back and somersaults into the flames !

Byh ! That needed a bit of pluck !

Our Cameraman thought that Mac would want to cool off after his hot dive, so he made him do something he couldn't do without the aid of the camera.

How's that ?

This is Mr. Earl McDonald after his dive.
