TITLE.:- PRINCE WITH THE POLICE.

Picture.:- One of the keenest spectators at this sports meeting was His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. With Mr. Clynes he watched with interest the wrestling. Here's a splendid fall !

The mighty crowd in Wardown Park shared the Prince's interest in the tug-of-war contest.

Here we see Luton Borough engaged in trying to pull Manchester City out of its foundations ! No mean task I can assure you - but they do it eventually !

Finally the Prince presents the various trophies to the winners.

This is T. Hoyland of Bradford City - winner of the $\frac{1}{2}$ mile - receiving the Cup from His Royal Highness.

TITLE.:- DAY OF DISASTER.

Picture.:- Herr Magersuppe prepares to demonstrate the new sport. He warns the men who are to catapult him into the air that the wind is likely to prove dangerous.

At the word "Go!" the glider takes to the air, but only just, for its left wing tip catches the fence causing the sail plane to bank steeply - and fall !

The crowd rushes forward - and to avoid falling on them Herr Magersuppe allows his plane to fall into the sea.

Then Herr Kronfeld decides to take off, after having taken extra precautions to avoid a repetition of his confrere's mishap.

Away she goes ! but also quickly comes to grief, rather seriously injuring a spectator.
