COMMENTATOR.:- Hullo everybody ! This is the Universal Talking News reporter screen-casting the latest news.

TITLE.:- PONGOLAND.

Picture.:- As our old friend the organ grinder would say - I lov-a-da-monk. And so would you if you could stand by their new enclosure at the Cincinatti Zoo and watch them enjoying themselves like happy children !

Did you know that monkeys could swim ? Well, look at this lot putting up a very, very good aquatic performance. Back again to their own little island, then off once more to make another circuit of the pool. They are fine divers too !

There are no rules to this race - but perhaps the first over the boat gets the cocconut - although I doubt if his friends would let him keep it !

TITLE.:- TOMMY ATKINS - HANDYMAN.

Picture.:- As a change from whispering endearments regarding the Sergeant major on the parade ground Tommy Atkins enjoys learning all about such civil pursuits as building construction; whilst house-decorating, including paper-hanging and painting has its attractions for any.

Others are taught to be plumbers and gas-fitters-useful chaps these !

Here they learn to draw something besides their pay ! The artistic side of life is not forgotten - These fellows are designing posters and sign-writing.

A little visitor can hardly believe her eyes when Tommy gives her a souvenir of her visit.

Girls ! you might do something worse than marry a soldier - they're useful things to have about the house you know.
