TITLE.:- "P.T."

Picture.:- "At the double" the students enter the "gym" and prepare to show how well they have been trained by their instructors.

Their time is good -- watch -- one-two, one-two, one-two, one-two, one--

Here's a good reducing exercise - but it wont reduce your Income Tax !

They're certainly well trained -- one, two, three-one, two, three -- one, two, three --

Their last item is performed with the grace of professional acrobatic dancers - up ! -- very good -- don ! that's fine !

TITLE.:- DUKE IN THE HIGHLANDS.

Picture.:- His Royal Highness, who, by the way, is also Earl of Inverness looks well in Scottish dress.

He arrives to inaugurate this, the greatest undertaking of its kind in the country.

Its purpose is to convey water from over three hundred square miles to Fort William.

At the boundary the Duke inspects, first, the guard of honour of Highlanders and then the ex-service men also drawn up in his honour -- after which His Royal Highness takes his leave pausing for a final word with the Mackintosh of Mackintosh.

And so back to Glamis Castle and his very charming Duchess.
