

TITLE.:- FESTIVAL OF SONG.

Picture.:- For the first time since nineteen hundred and three the Eisteddfod is held in Llanelli. The proceedings open with prayer --

-and are conducted in the presence of a vast crowd.

Within the Gorsedd circle, offerings representing plenty and peace are made -- here we see one such being received by Pedrog, the Archdruid.

Bardic names are bestowed upon those gaining honours in the various competitions.

Not being learned in the Welsh language, I'm sorry I can't pronounce any of these names for you - though no doubt any one of these thousands of Welsh people would be able to do so with facility.

Oh, by the way, this very picturesque bardic festival dates right back to the sixth century.

A druidical procession concludes this very impressive outdoor Eisteddfod ceremony.

COMMENTATOR.:- Well cheerio everybody ! We'll be with you again in a few days.
