MAIN TITLE.:- UNIVERSAL TALKING NEWS etc.

OPEN WITH FANFARE OF TRUMPETS.

COMMENTATOR.:- Hello everybody ! This is the Universal Talking News reporter screen-casting the latest news.

(1) TITLE.:- TRING SHOW.

Picture.:- Jumping competitions were a feature of the show and attracted many entrants from a wide area.

This unusual double-jump presented no difficulty to Army equestrians.

Then follows a parade of the best blood-stock in Hertfordshire.

A much interested spectator was Lord Rothschild who appears to take particular notice of the magnificent cattle who parade blissfully unaware of the fact that their ultimate destiny is the dinner table.

The attendance at this, the eighty-sixth annual show, exceeded ten thousand by mid-day -- a record.

(2) TITLE.:- ANOTHER RECORD BROKEN.

Picture.: At ten to eight in the morning, sixty-nine heard the "Get Ready !" --

"Off !" -- and set out on the long long trail from Nottingham Market Square to Birmingham -- a distance of fifty-five miles.

At Derby -- through the traffic -- with a welcome cooler.

This spraying of perspiring humanity is a happy thought.

Here's a veteran -- 64, not out ! at Derby.

Joe Bradford, the Birmingham footballer, wishes luck to Green as he enters Birmingham. Here he is coming in to win and register the new record.

Birmingham's Lord Mayor congratulates the winner -- T.W. Green of Belgrave Harriers London.
