

2-11-1881
2-5-1881

(7). TITLE.- GROUSE SHOOTING SEASON OPENS.

Picture.- Mountain ponies are utilised when a party goes out on to the moors.

These accompanied Lord Wimbourne's party to the Drumour shoot.

Here is His Lordship and party -- which includes Lord and Lady Castleross.

The Duke of Marlborough was also there.

Here is His Grace at the butts bowling them over.

It is said grouse are plentiful this year -- so it would seem! After retrievers have brought in the birds, they are loaded into the pannier baskets carried by the ponies, and home they go with a good day's "bag".

(8). TITLE.- LADY OF THE LAMP

Picture.- It is not only to-day that women achieve great things.

Away back in the early fifties, Florence Nightingale did yeoman service for the soldiers during the Crimean War.

Twenty years after her death, her wonderful work is remembered, and here we see Prince Tokugawa of Japan laying a wreath at the foot of the statue of the Crimean heroine.

The Prince is head of the Japanese Red Cross in England -- hence his interest in one who devoted her life to succouring the sick.