COMMENTATOR.:- Hallo everybody ! This is the Universal Talking News Reporter screen-casting the latest news.

(1). TITLE.:- A JOB FOR LIFE.

Picture.:- It takes three years to paint this mighty mile-and-a-half long structure; and as soon as the painters reach the end, they have to start all over again!

These chaps haven't got to worry about what to do with their sons -- the job's waiting for them, when Dad's too old to carry on.

It's risky work -- one slip, and it would be a case of -- as the papers would say -- the Cross marks the spot --etcetera.

This shows that painters aspire to great heights -- but who wants to be a painter ? Anyone can have their job !

It took five thousand men, working day and night for seven years, to build this bridge -- and the highest part is three hundred and sixty one feet above the water.

Hello what's this ? Why they've even got one-way traffic up there ! It's knocking-off time -- they should be home in time to come to work to-morrow morning.
